Theme: Beginning of the Messianic family of David Author: Unknown Date: 11th Century B.C

Summary complete Leader sign/date

This is the account of a beautiful romance in which Ruth chooses to live with and be a part of God's people, no matter what the cost (1: 16-17). Because of her choice and her marriage to Boaz, she became one of the ancestors of King David, whose lineage eventually leads to the Messiah Himself. Boaz, Ruth's kinsman-redeemer, is a type of Christ, our great Kinsman-Redeemer, who redeems us and makes us His heavenly Bride.

Isaiah

Reading complete

Theme: Israel and the coming Messiah Author: Isaiah

Student sign/date

Summary complete Date: 8th century B.C Leader sign/date

This book of prophecy was written by one of the greatest Hebrew prophets. The book has two main divisions; prediction of events up to and including the captivities (chap. 1-39); and events looking beyond the captivities, even to the end of the ages (chap. 40-66). In order to understand Isaiah, we must understand that all is predictions revolve around Christ's two comings. Christ came the first time as the suffering, rejected Messiah to die for the sins of the people (chap. 53). At His second coming, when Christ will set up His kingdom on earth, Israel will be regathered to Palestine from its worldwide dispersion and will see fulfillment of the promised Messianic kingdom.

Daniel

Reading complete Student sign/date

Theme: Rise and fall of kingdoms Author: Daniel

Summary complete Leader sign/date

Date: 6th century B.C.

The book of Daniel contains prophecies revealed mainly to Daniel himself in the form of dreams and visions. Daniel 2:4 through chapter 7 were written in Aramaic, and these prophecies pertain to the Gentile nations. Daniel 1:1-2:3 and chapters 8-12 were written in Hebrew, and these prophecies relate primarily to the Jewish nation of Israel. Daniel is also a book of contrasts. The first six chapters contain stories familiar to almost every Sunday school student, while chapters 7 through 12 puzzle the minds of the greatest theologians. Daniel, taken captive by Nebuchadnezzar into Babylon, lived during the reign of four kings: Nebuchadnezzar, Belshazzar, Darius and Cyrus. Familiar stories in this book are the three Hebrew children's refusal to eat the king's meat, bow down to Nebuchadnezzar's golden image, and their being thrown into the fiery furnace; Nebuchadnezzar's insanity; Belshazzar's feast and the handwriting on the wall; and Daniel in the lion's den.

Nahum

Reading complete Student sign/date

Theme: Nineveh's doom Author: Nahum Date: 7th century B.C

Summary complete

Leader sign/date

The book of Nahum is the sequel to the book of Jonah, but little is known about its author except that he lived in a Galilean village. The people of Nineveh had repented when Jonah preached to them, and God's judgment was delayed for more than 100 years. In the book of Nahum, however, the people were again disobeying God. Nahum prophesied against them and predicted the destruction of Nineveh, the great capital city of the mighty Assyrian Empire. Within 20 years of Nahum's prophecy, his dire predictions were fulfilled when an army of Babylonians and Medes destroyed the wicked city of Nineveh.

Habakkuk

judgment - the Chaldean

invasion

Author: Habakkuk Summary complete Date: 7th century B.C. Leader sign/date

Nothing is known about the prophet Habakkuk except what his book reveals. The theme of his book, written in the form of a dialogue between Habakkuk and God, is the impending Chaldean invasion. One particularly well-known question asked by Habakkuk pertains to how a holy God could restrain from judging sinners (1:13). God's answer is equally well known: the just shall live by his faith (2:4). The wonderful truths of justification by faith and living the Christian life by faith are fully revealed in the New Testament. Because of Christ's death at Calvary, God offers salvation to everyone who accepts His free gift by faith.

1,2,&3 John

Theme: Instruction for Christian living Author: Apostle John Date: A.D. 85 to 95 Reading complete Student sign/date

Summary complete Leader sign/date

The theme of 1 John is the fellowship of God's family. The writer gives instructions in righteous living to God's children. This epistle also tells the believer how he may know he is born again, and how he may have fellowship with God and with other believers. Believers are to hate sin and love one another. False teachers are strongly rebuked, and believers are warned against them. Second John is addressed either to a local church or an individual woman. Believers are exhorted to be faithful to the truth in times of spiritual decline because many deceivers are in the world. Third John is a letter addressed to a man named Gaius, who is commended for his hospitality. The exhortation is to "walk in truth" Diotrephes, a man who wanted to dominate the church, is rebuked.
